Sharon Says....

May you see Santa in everyone.

Enjoy your favorite holiday movie.

Remember those less fortunate with the gift of prayer.

Red bows decorate the tree.

Yuletide.

CLC Life Insurance is the best gift ever!

Host a delicious holiday feast with all the trimmings.

Remember the real reason for the season.

Introduce someone to volunteering.

See things through the eyes of a child.

Take time to enjoy your family and friends.

My wish is that everyone has a blessed holiday season!

Always keep your heart and soul happy.

Silent Night! Holy Night!

Kalida Receives Interior Design 2 Tips

Kalida • Council 134

Kalida Council 134 met on Monday, November 14, 2011, in St. Michael's church basement. Our guest speaker was Joan Niese, owner of Uptown Designs. She gave us some pointers on decorating our homes. She gave us ideas on color and texture. She showed us how to change an arrangement by adding a bit of color. Uptown Designs located in Kalida also has a wide selection of gifts. It was a very interesting presentation.

A donation was given to the VFW in Spencerville to help send Christmas packages to our military overseas. We were also reminded to submit our volunteer hours. Those on the degree team were told to mark the date for the next initiation, October 14, 2012, with more details to follow.

Our Christmas party will be December 12 with Mass at 5:30 pm. and dinner at 6:00 pm. Tickets are now on sale for $5.00. A gift exchange of $5.00 is optional. Our chairlady is Carol Bockrath and Mary Hoffman is our chef.

The door prize was donated by Joan Niese and was won by Judy Birkemeier. November birthdays were celebrated.

Our charter was draped and prayers were said for members Naomi Bellman and Rita Birkemeier.
